

“The Choice is Yours” summit

31 youth attended (not including Executive Council) from 14 counties representing 12 Partnerships.

Main Activities:

- Tobacco Free Ball street marketing event
 - Social Marketing Videos
 - Bring ‘fun’ back to summits
- Calendar of events for the upcoming year
 - New Executive Council can build off of what was discussed
- Peer to peer and adult to youth presentations
 - First time in several year’s we’ve had a professional guest speaker
- Elections
 - Elected new president
 - Elected 2 new youth commission members
 - Selected members for this year’s Executive Council

Budget:

Our initial budget approved by Dr. Miller-Meeks for the summit was $15,750.

Our actual expenditures (some rounding for change):

- Food: $1,600
- Service agreements: $1,000 (Includes photographer, DJ, interviewers)
- Venue: $1,565
- Summit Coordination, promotion, and logistics: $10,400
- Supplies: $620 (Includes Step and Repeat, props, grab bags, etc.)

Total Expenditures: $15,185

We spent 96% of our approved budget. In addition we received donations or support as follows:

- $3,000-ABD paid for Nigel Wrangham’s expenses associated with keynote.
- $100 (estimated)-Iowa Cancer Consortium donated bags for goodies.
- $100 (estimated)-Angie’s Artisan Treats donation of popcorn.