COUNT V

Respondent is charged with making misleading, deceptive advertising in violation of 645 IAC 65.2(4).

D. FACTUAL CIRCUMSTANCES

1. During an investigation on June 13, 2007, two unlicensed individuals were providing services that require an Iowa nail technology license. One individual who was providing nail services left the salon during the investigation. Pursuant to 645 IAC 65.2(36), if a person who is providing cosmetology services leaves the salon during the inspection, the act is prima facie evidence that an unlicensed person was providing services. The owner is responsible for allowing unlicensed persons to practice pursuant to 645 IAC 63.4(1).

2. During an investigation at Respondent Salon on June 13, 2007, Respondent Owner was unable to provide any records of the cleaning and disinfecting of whirlpool foot spas.

3. One customer developed a nail fungus following a manicure at Respondent Salon. During the manicure, the customer's finger was cut and wiped with fungicide. The customer eventually sought medical attention and was diagnosed with an infection requiring antibiotic treatment.

4. During the investigation the fungicide containers were contaminated by cotton with black specks in the solution.

5. The investigation completed on June 21, 2007 revealed the following:

a) A copy of the most recent inspection report was not posted.

b) A hazardous waste container bag was not available.

6. The investigation revealed an extensive list of services advertised by the salon which were outside the scope of practice for nail technicians. Advertisement included permanent makeup, facial waxing, customized facial, massage, and hair services.

E. SETTLEMENT

This matter may be resolved by settlement agreement. The procedural rules governing the Board's settlement process are found at 645 IAC Chapter 12. If you are interested in pursuing settlement of this matter, please contact Julie Bussanmas, Assistant Attorney General, at 515-281-4419.
