Additionally, used nail buffers and other used nail supplies were retained for re-use. Clean nail tools were found in dirty drawers; other nail tools were found partially submerged in Barbicide. Black stringy debris and grime was found around whirlpool spa jets and screens. Chamois buffers were found in the salon, some coated with wax.

During the inspection, an employee left by a back door when her identification was sought. Another employee was unable to provide any form of identification. Waxing was offered in the salon by an unlicensed person. A heel shaver was found in the salon, and testing revealed the presence of MMA in two samples of nail liquid obtained by the investigators.
