Services Across the Life Span

- Reproductive Life Plan; Title X Family Planning; Preconception genetic testing
- Presumptive Eligibility for Pregnant Women; Title V Family Planning Services; PRAMS; Presumptive Eligibility for Pregnant Women; Title V
- MIECHV; Preconception genetic testing; Stillbirth Surveillance and Prevention; MCH Epidemiology
- Statewide Perinatal Care Program; SIDS Prevention; Shaken Baby Prevention and Intervention program; Newborn Screening program; Metabolic Food and Formula
- EPSDT/Child Health: hawk-i Outreach; Project LAUNCH; Early Childhood Iowa; Iowa Household Health Survey; Early ACCESS; HCCI; CHIPRA Teen Outreach; MCH Epidemiology; Domestic Violence Prevention; Title X Family Planning
- Impact
- Impact
- Impact
- Impact
- Impact
decrease unintended pregnancies; healthy pregnancies; smoking cessation; improved women's health and screening; appropriate preconception screening and interventions around family history

early, regular prenatal care; healthy pregnancy; insurance coverage for eligible pregnant women; improve family coping skills and functioning; promote positive parenting and family interaction; early identification of development of stillbirth prevention initiatives; early detection of fetal anomalies through maternal prenatal screening; promotion of optimal maternal health newborn care standards are met; increased number of children with health care coverage; reduce/prevent infant morbidity and mortality; all Iowa newborns are screened for congenital and inherited disorders, including hearing loss children receive regular physical and developmental screenings; children birth to age 5 are assessed for social and emotional health risk factors and referred to community-based services; performance measurement of child health promotion activities and access to child health services; healthy and safe child care environments delayed sexual initiation; decrease in teen pregnancy rates; increase knowledge of contraceptives, increase knowledge of local resources and understand what a healthy relationship should be; decrease in STI rates; positive goal-setting and decision-making skills; suicide prevention; higher graduation rates; healthier relationships; healthier lifestyles

Cross the Life Span

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Adult Women</th>
<th>Adult Men</th>
<th>Elderly</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Title X Family Planning; Women's Health program; Regional Genetics Consultation Service; Family Health History Initiative; Domestic Violence Prevention</td>
<td>Title X Family Planning; Regional Genetics Consultation Service; Family Health History Initiative; Domestic Violence Prevention</td>
<td>Family Health History Initiative; Title X sexual &amp; elder abuse reporting</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Impact | Impact | Impact |
Improved spacing and timing of pregnancy; lower STI rates; appropriate preventive screening activities for women’s health, preconception, and chronic diseases; healthier lifestyles; healthier relationships; domestic violence screening; healthy lifestyle education lower STI rates; increased involvement in pregnancy planning; improved relationships; improved preventive screening activities; domestic violence and sexual assault prevention early intervention for individual and descendants based on disease risk; prevention/identification of elder abuse